

How children learn about different cultures and diversity within Dalesplay

We learn about different festivals and events across the world and often use the globe to see where these events take place. We are pen pals with a nursery in Australia and together we have learnt what it is like living in the two different places. We have pictures of children around the setting from different cultures and with different abilities.

